

Corporate governance statement

HusCompagniet A/S, CVR no. 36 97 29 63

1 HusCompagniet A/S – Statement on Corporate Governance

This corporate governance statement for HusCompagniet A/S, company registration no. 36 97 29 63 (“HusCompagniet” or the “Company”) has been prepared pursuant to Section 107b of the Danish Financial Statements Act and the Rules for Issuers of Shares of Nasdaq Copenhagen A/S. This statement has been prepared in connection with HusCompagniet’s annual report for 2021 and forms part of the Management Review.

2 Management structure

HusCompagniet has a two-tier management structure consisting of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management. The two bodies are separate and have no overlapping members. The Board of Directors is responsible for the overall and strategic management and proper organization of HusCompagniet’s business and operations and it supervises HusCompagniet’s activities, management and organization. The Board of Directors appoints and dismisses the members of the Executive Management, who are responsible for the day-to-day management of HusCompagniet.

3 Board of Directors

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than four and not more than eight members elected by the general meeting. Currently, the Board of Directors consists of six members elected by the general meeting. The Board of Directors elects a Chairperson and a Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors among its members. Under the current Recommendations on Corporate Governance, all members of the Board of Directors have been assessed by HusCompagniet to be independent as per 31 December 2021. The members of the Board of Directors comprise a group of professionally skilled business people also representing diversity and international experience. The members of the Board of Directors elected by the general meeting are elected for a term of one year until the next annual general meeting. Members of the Board of Directors may be re-elected. The Board of Directors normally holds at least five regular meetings annually, including a strategy review, plus ad hoc meetings as required.

4 Board Committees

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee and a Remuneration and Nomination Committee, each of which has a charter setting forth its purpose and responsibilities. All the committees report and make recommendations to the Board of Directors.

4.1 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of three members appointed by and among the Board of Directors. The overall purpose of the Audit Committee is to review accounting and audit matters that by decision of the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee require a more thorough evaluation, and assess the internal controls and risk management systems of HusCompagniet. Its duties also include supervision of HusCompagniet's auditors and review of the audit process.

The Audit Committee shall convene when it is deemed necessary or appropriate, however it is expected to be convened at least three times a year. HusCompagniet's CFO shall participate in the meetings of the Audit Committee, unless otherwise requested by the Audit Committee, and HusCompagniet's external auditor shall participate in meetings of the Audit Committee if so requested by the Audit Committee. The external auditor shall attend at least one meeting per year or the relevant part hereof where the Executive Management is not present. The members of the Audit Committee meets the independence requirement set out in the Corporate Governance Recommendations.

4.2 Remuneration and Nomination Committee

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee consists of three members appointed by and among the Board of Directors. The overall purpose of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to assist the Board of Directors with matters related to the remuneration of the Board of Directors and Executive Management, including reviewing and updating HusCompagniet's remuneration policy in accordance with Sections 139 and 139a of the Danish Companies Act, evaluating and making recommendations for the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management as well as the preparation of the remuneration report in accordance with Section 139b of the Danish Companies Act. Further, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee assists the Board of Directors with ensuring that appropriate plans and processes are in place for nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors, the Executive Management and the board committees. Moreover, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee evaluates the composition of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management, which includes making recommendations for nomination or appointment of members of (a) the Board of Directors, (b) the Executive Management and (c) the board committees established by the Board of Directors. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall convene when it is deemed necessary or appropriate, however expected to be convened at least once a year. The members of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee meet the independence requirements set out in the Corporate Governance Recommendations.

5 Executive Management

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Executive Management shall consist of one to three members appointed by the Board of Directors. Currently, the Executive Management consists of two members, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, who are responsible for the day-to-day management and compliance with the procedures, instructions, guidelines and recommendations issued by the Board of Directors. The Executive Management's responsibilities include inter alia organisation of HusCompagniet as well as allocation of resources, determination and implementation of strategies and policies and ensuring timely reporting to the Board of Directors. The Executive Management also presents and recommends proposals on the overall strategy and objectives to the Board of Directors.

6 Internal control and financial reporting procedures

The Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and the Executive Management are ultimately responsible for HusCompagniet's risk management and internal controls in relation to its financial reporting and approve HusCompagniet's general policies in that regard. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in overseeing the reporting process and the most important risks involved in this respect. The Executive Management is responsible for the effectiveness of the internal controls and risk management and for the implementation of such controls aimed at mitigating the risk associated with the financial reporting. HusCompagniet has internal control and financial reporting procedures aimed at enabling it to monitor its performance, operations, funding and risk. Currently, HusCompagniet does not have any internal audit function. The Board of Directors will continuously review the need for such function.

7 Recommendations for good corporate governance

HusCompagniet is subject to the Recommendations on Corporate Governance from December 2020, which are available on the Committee on Corporate Governance's website www.corporategovernance.dk. As a company listed on Nasdaq Copenhagen, HusCompagniet is required to report on its compliance with these recommendations according to the "comply or explain" principle. HusCompagniet's position on each recommendation is described in the following and reflects the situation at the time of the reporting. HusCompagniet complies with the Recommendations on Corporate Governance in all material respects, except that HusCompagniet has opted to deviate in the following area:

- HusCompagniet does not publish quarterly reports but publishes trading statements for Q1 and Q3. HusCompagniet believes that trading statements provide investors and other stakeholders with sufficient information on the financials of HusCompagniet

3.2.2. The Committee recommends that members of the executive management are not members of the board of directors and that members retiring from the executive management does not join the board of directors immediately thereafter.	√
3.3. Members of the board of directors and the number of other managerial duties
3.3.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors and each of the members on the board of directors, in connection with the annual evaluation, cf. recommendation 3.5.1., assesses how much time is required to perform the board duties. The aim is for the individual member of the board of directors not to take on more managerial duties than the board member in question is able to perform in a satisfactory manner.	√
3.3.2. The Committee recommends that the management commentary, in addition to the statutory requirements, contains the following information on the individual members of the board of directors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • position, age and gender, • competencies and qualifications relevant to the company, • independence, • year of joining the board of directors, • year of expiry of the current election period, 	√

3.4.5. The Committee recommends that the board of directors establishes a remuneration committee to perform at least the following preparatory tasks:	√

Recommendation	The company complies	The company explains ¹
		why	how
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • preparing a draft remuneration policy for the board of directors' approval prior to the presentation at the general meeting, • providing a proposal to the board of directors on the remuneration of the members of the executive management, • providing a proposal to the board of directors on the remuneration of the board of directors prior to the presentation at the general meeting, • ensuring that the management's actual remuneration complies with the company's remuneration policy and the evaluation of the individual member's performance, and • assisting in the preparation of the annual remuneration report for the board of directors' approval prior to the presentation for the general meeting's advisory vote.
3.5. Evaluation of the board of directors and the executive management
3.5.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors once a year evaluates the board of directors and at least every three years engages external assistance in the evaluation. The Committee recommends that the evaluation focuses on the recommendations on the board of directors' work, efficiency, composition and organisation, cf. recommendations 3.1.-3.4. above, and that the evaluation as a minimum always includes the following topics:	√ connection with a member of the executive management's departure, does not exceed two years' remuneration including all remuneration elements.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company explains ¹

4.1.5. The Committee recommends that members of the board of directors are not remunerated with share options and warrants.	√
4.1.6. The Committee recommends that the company has the option to reclaim, in whole or in part, variable remuneration from the board of directors and the executive management if the remuneration granted, earned or paid was based on information, which subsequently proves to be incorrect, or if the recipient acted in bad faith in respect of other matters, which implied payment of a too large variable remuneration.	√
5. Risk management
5.1. Identification of risks and openness in respect of additional information
5.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors based on the company's strategy and business model considers, for instance, the most significant strategic, business, accounting and liquidity risks. The company should in the management commentary give an account of these risks and the company's risk management.	√
